Service Level Agreement - Sample #2

This sample is a long form contract with a sample report following it. One of them is provided for each service provided.

Date: 06/05/11
To: Order Processing Department
From: Information Technology Department
Subject: Service Level Agreement

I. INTRODUCTION

The following Service Level Agreement (SLA) is between the Order Processing Department, referred to as the Client and the Information Technology Department (IT). A SLA summary report will be included on the 15th working day of each month. A sample of the report is attached.

Ultimately the goal is to meet 100% availability. This SLA is another step in the effort to achieve that objective. It is Information Technology's intention to continuously apply AAC Customer Service standards to improve client service in all areas whenever possible.

This agreement shall be in effect for 1 year from 06/01/11 or until the SLA is renegotiated. Support SLAs will continue to be reported upon unless SLAs are put in place.

II. IT SERVICES PROVIDED

A. SYSTEM AVAILABILITY

The Order Processing Department's system availability is a metric from a combination of various availability components. This metric is representative of hardware hardware and system control programs (OS, VM, etc.). It will report availability for 99%, 99.99%, the network and the ORDER system.

1. ORDER System

Definition:

The ORDER System platform will be available as measured by CPU production on a weekly basis and include specified service hours as documented below.

Contracted Services:

Outside of Hours	9:00 AM - 5:00 PM
During maintenance periods	9:00 AM - 7:00 PM

The ORDER System will be available in "troubled" mode during outages.

Service Level:

The ORDER System will be available not less than 97% of the agreed production hours (contracted 2400hrs) or not exceed 3% of the total.
